Connecting With Your Angels

Angel Therapy Practitioners Martin and Connie Jordan are back doing what they do best; making people laugh, and teaching about Spirit. Join them on Sunday, September 7 from 2-5pm at The I AM Healing Arts Center to discover how to connect with those that have crossed over, and the Angels that are always surrounding you.

Connect and work with your Angels and Guides; learn your angels name and their purpose in your life. Find out how to set up your day with your Angels so that you give yourself the best chance ever to live a life unburdened.

The Jordan's have just started teaching again after their 16 year old son ascended to his higher purpose from Leukemia in October of 2007.

10% of proceeds go to the Children's Dream Foundation. Call 941-926-7522 to reserve your spot or for more info. healive.org.
